

Dear Greens:

Please renew your annual membership to the Skagit Greens, if you have not already done so. We need your support in order to carry on with local programs and also to support a Green Party candidate for President. Please send your dues check to the Green Party of Skagit County, P.O. Box 215, Anacortes, WA 98221. Thank you for your continuing membership.

The next Skagit Greens meeting will take place at 6:30 PM, Monday, February 6, 2012 in room 310 of the Skagit Food Coop building at 202 S. First St. in Mount Vernon. The meeting agenda for 2-6-12, the treasurer's report for 2-6-12 and the minutes for 1-2-12 are presented here for comments or questions by the membership, either by telephone, email or in person at the 2-6-12 meeting. If there are no questions by the membership on any of the materials presented by the meeting date of 2-6-12, the materials will be deemed as approved by a consensus of the membership. Call Howard with any questions or comments.

Sincerely,
Howard

GREEN PARTY OF SKAGIT COUNTY MEETING MINUTES FOR JANUARY 2, 2012

The meeting was called to order by teleconference at around 6:30 PM, Monday, January 2, 2012.

The agenda for January 2, 2012, the treasurer's report for January 2, 2012 and the minutes for December 5, 2011 were all deemed approved by a consensus of the membership as there were no comments or questions on any of the materials by email, telephone or by the meeting date for January 2, 2012.

Discussion took place concerning the Occupy Wall Street organization and Greens were invited to participate in the Occupy Anacortes demonstration from 12-1:00 PM on Fridays at the corner of 12th. and Commercial Ave. in Anacortes.

An update on the Guemes Island Environmental Trust (GIET) essay contest concerning Plan B, Lester Brown's movie concerning global warming, human population, poverty and environmental restoration. Further updates are to be provided at subsequent meetings.

Scott and Howard participated in signature gathering for I-502, the initiative to put legalization of marijuana before the Washington State legislature.

Howard mentioned again that Jill Stein is running to become the Green Party of the United States presidential candidate. Members were referred to Jill's web site www.jillstein.org for further information. Scott and Howard will be attending the state Green Party gathering in Olympia if at all possible.

The meeting adjourned around 7:00 PM.
